

Foreclosure Prevention Certification Training in March

Basic to intermediate foreclosure prevention certification training will be offered March 9th - 11th on behalf of the Virginia Foreclosure Prevention Task Force. A three-day training conducted by industry experts and providing best practices for Loss Mitigation and Foreclosure Prevention will provide counselors with information critical to serving their customers. This session will be offered at Virginia Housing Center (VHC), 4224 Cox Road, Glen Allen, VA 23060.

Nonprofits (i.e. housing counseling agencies, redevelopment and housing authorities and local governments) that are currently providing housing counseling services should attend. Sign up now for training to help you assist families and individuals prevent foreclosure on their homes.

Since seating is limited, participation will be based upon need. Please RSVP by March 2nd. There is a $100 registration fee per person for the training session that will be refunded after you complete the class. Your registration fee must be received no later than March 2nd; otherwise you will not be able to attend the session. Refunds will not be given to no-shows.

To RSVP: Please send an email to foreclosureprevention@vhda.com and include: Your name, organization name and type (governmental or nonprofit), organization address, phone number and email address, name and email address of additional attendees from your organization.

Mail your $100 per person fee to:
Carolyn Coleman
VHDA
601 S. Belvidere Street
Richmond, VA 23220-6504